AUCTION

7 NIGHT STAY IN ITALIAN RUSTIC HOUSE

A rare opportunity to stay in this much-loved family Italian home. A rustic countryside retreat set among approximately 50 olive trees, located just 2 km from the beautiful famous white hilltop town of Ostuni, in the heart of Puglia. It's a place to slow down, reconnect with nature, and enjoy simple family living in a peaceful, authentic Italian setting.

The house sits slightly elevated and is open and relaxed. Designed for easy family holidays, it's perfect for shared meals, barefoot days, and long, quiet evenings. A large shaded verandah looks across the olive grove towards Ostuni's new town and is ideal for breakfasts, lazy lunches, and dinners under the stars.

The House

The 4 bedroom house has. 3 double bedrooms plus a bedroom with 4 single beds (ideal for children). The main house is entered into the upstairs area, with steps downstairs to a cool open, airy space with access to the pool.. A beautiful, spacious, informal house full of Italian rustic charm.

Upstairs:

- Two comfortable bedrooms each with a double bed
- A shared family bathroom
- An open-plan lounge
- A fully equipped rustic kitchen

Downstairs:

- 1 Large bedrooms with connecting bathroom
- 1 Large room with 4 single beds ideal for children

The house has Wi-Fi, televisions, and a washing machine, dishwasher,
The house does not have Air-conditioning

Outdoor Living for Families

Outdoor life is at the heart of the home:

- A small private pool, perfect for cooling off and a favourite with children
- A BBQ area for relaxed family meals
- A shaded pagoda, ideal for reading, games, or afternoon naps

Peaceful but Practical Location

The property is off the beaten track and accessed via a narrow country road, so a car is essential. The final stretch is along a dusty rural track — very typical for the area — but once you arrive, you'll find ample parking in a calm, beautiful setting.

Ostuni is:

- Around 30 minutes from Brindisi Airport
- Around 1 hour from Bari Airport

Both airports have direct flights from Bristol, making travel easy despite the rural feel.

Main Square in Ostuni

Beaches for All Ages

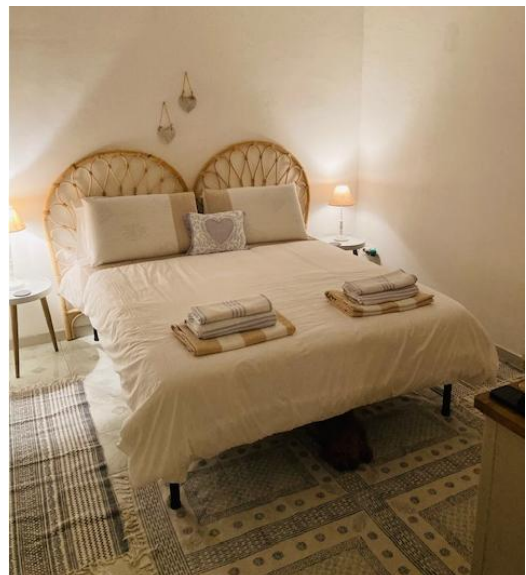

The house is well positioned for the coast, with beaches on both the Adriatic and Ionian seas:

- Torre Guaceto, the closest beach, is a protected nature reserve with crystal-clear water. Cars park above and a small tram takes visitors down.
- Villanova, a beautiful coastal town close to Ostuni, is perfect for easy seaside days, swimming, and relaxed waterfront meals.
- The Ionian coast, including Porto Cesareo and Gallipoli, offers soft white sand and calm, shallow turquoise waters, ideal for families.

Lazy days at the house with fabulous views

Please note: This is a family home and is not rented out on any holiday-let platforms. We kindly ask that it is treated with respect, that any breakages are covered, and that you have appropriate insurance in place for your stay.

The house is an ideal base for discovering Puglia, with many beautiful towns within an easy 10–60 minute drive:

Alberobello, Trulli

Polignano a Mare

Matera

- Ceglie Messapica (10 minutes) – famous for local cuisine and traditional butchers
- Alberobello – a UNESCO World Heritage Site with its fairytale Trulli (Trulli Country)
- Polignano a Mare – dramatic clifftop views and crystal-clear water
- Cisternino and Martina Franca – charming old towns and lively evening piazzas
- Monopoli – a relaxed coastal town with historic harbour and beaches
- Gallipoli – on the Ionian coast, loved for its old town, beaches, and shallow waters

For a car-free day out, Lecce — known as the Florence of the South for its stunning Baroque architecture — is easily reached by train in around one hour from nearby stations.

Matera, the extraordinary ancient “biblical” city famous for its cave dwellings (Sassi), is around 1–1.5 hours’ drive and makes an unforgettable day trip.
